Colfax Announces Offering of Senior Notes and Preliminary Trends for the First Quarter of 2017

Annapolis Junction, MD, April 07, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Colfax Corporation (NYSE: CFX) ("Colfax"), a leading global manufacturer of gas and fluid-handling and fabrication technology products and services, today announced the offering of €350 million aggregate principal amount of its senior notes (the "Notes"). The Notes will be guaranteed by certain of Colfax's domestic subsidiaries (the "Guarantees"). Colfax intends to use the net proceeds from this offering to repay an aggregate of approximately $301.7 million of outstanding borrowings under its revolving credit facility and certain of its bilateral credit agreements, as well as for general corporate purposes. Settlement of the offering is expected to occur on April 19, 2017.

The Notes and the Guarantees have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction. As a result, the Notes and the Guarantees may not be offered or sold within the United States to or for the account or benefit of any U.S. person unless the offer or sale would qualify for a registration exemption under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. Accordingly, the Notes and the Guarantees are being offered only to qualified institutional buyers in accordance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act and to certain persons outside the United States in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy, nor shall there be any sale of, the Notes or the Guarantees in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state or jurisdiction.

Based on current management estimates of preliminary results for the quarter ended March 31, 2017, Colfax expects another quarter of solid organic order growth in its Gas & Fluid Handling segment, which would be the third consecutive quarter of organic order growth. For its Fabrication Technology segment, Colfax expects a substantially more favorable organic revenue comparison to the prior year quarter than experienced in similar year-over-year comparisons for the third and fourth quarters of 2016.
